Resources for Catechesis

Transforming Your Church's Art
into a Meaningful Catechesis

Adults

Offering age-appropriate, full-color instructional manuals on prayer and meditation. These can be used in RCIA programs as well as informal groups, gatherings, and on retreats or missions in your parish community.

Youth

Our Light for the Journey core manual brings prayer and meditation to life. It includes instruction as well as prayer and meditation experiences that are skillfully created around your sanctuary's art — both statuary and windows.

Children

We offer customized coloring books featuring your church's windows; full-color, illustrated church and mass guides with your priest in your sanctuary; also age-appropriate Light for the Journey core prayer instruction manuals.

The Program

“The first task of life is prayer.
...[It] is opening the door to the Lord,
so he can do something.”
– Pope Francis

Transform Your Church's Art into a Meaningful Catechesis

Light for the Journey. A meaningful and engaging series of print and digital formation resources to enrich your catechetical programs. Why so meaningful? Each element is actually created around your church: its sanctuary, its art, and even your priest(s). The result? A powerful learning experience that teaches and nurtures the Faith while building community and belonging.

■ Unique Books. Professional photographs and illustrations of your sanctuary combine with customized written content. This proven pedagogical approach brings content to life.

■ Teaching Notes and Tools. Never worry about teaching new material. We provide full, easy-to-follow teaching notes and tools.

■ Focus on Prayer Life. The main focus is the rich tradition of prayer in the Catholic church. Methodology is built around real-time, in-the-moment experiences and an engaging learning architecture of guided discovery.

■ Focus on Belonging. The pedagogy that underpins Light for the Journey is in place so learners become more engaged and are able to develop a lively sense of belonging in your church community.

■ Dynamic Faith-Building Program. Light for the Journey easily becomes an integral part of your church's formal religious education and its catechetical programs for newcomers. It's also ideal for informal church groups, gatherings, retreats, and missions.

“The images reveal your church in breathtaking, inspiring, and artful ways. The written content engages to support readers in prayer and community.”

“Print and digital options are expertly customized based on your particular church: its sanctuary, art, even your priest(s) and deacons.”
