

Light for the Journey

Customized Books
for Church Fundraising

Transforming Your Church's Art
into Meaningful Fundraising

Major Donors

Your church's Light for the Journey book is available in a special hardcover coffee-table edition. It has the look and feel of an art book and can be used as a gift for major donors within your parish.

Fundraising

For general as well as specific fundraising purposes or for annual giving contributions, Light for the Journey is available in a special gift edition that is hardback, perfect bound, and measures 8" x 10".

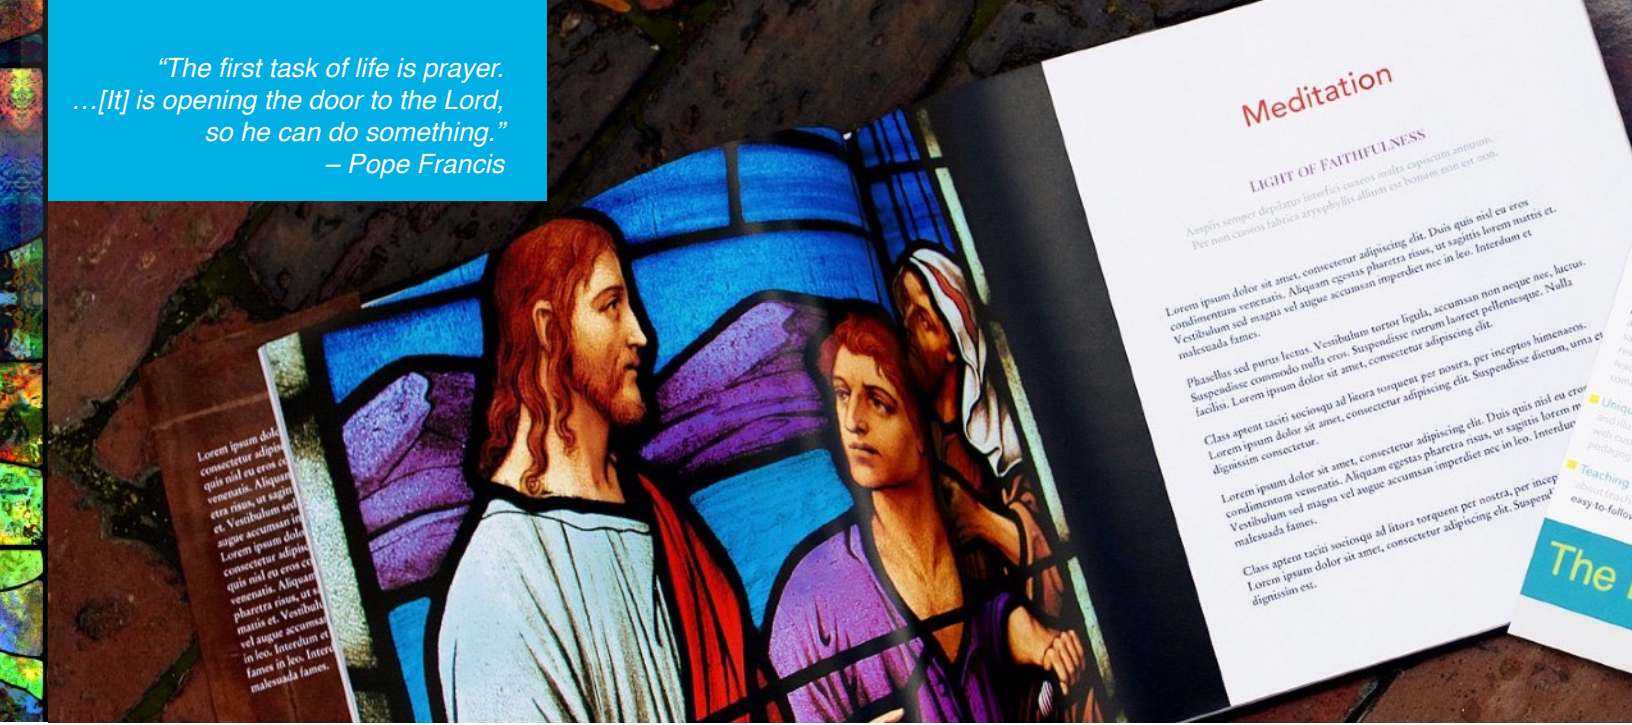

Evangelization

Your parish has the opportunity to provide Light for the Journey as an evangelization edition through traditional distribution channels like Amazon and Barnes & Noble.

The Gift

“The first task of life is prayer.
...[It] is opening the door to the Lord,
so he can do something.”
– Pope Francis

Transform Your Church's Art into a Meaningful Fundraising Opportunity

Light for the Journey. A one-of-a-kind fundraising opportunity for your church that transforms your church's art (statuary and windows) into a meaningful, full-color book available in both digital and print editions.

- Revitalizing Church Art. This is a gift that reclaims the centuries'-old roles of religious art: to instruct and to inspire.
- Customized Gifts. These books are gorgeous. The professional photographs and illustrations of your sanctuary combine with customized written content. They showcase your church: its sanctuary, its art, and even your priest(s). The result? A beautiful gift that teaches and nurtures the Faith while building community and belonging.

- Focus on Prayer Life. The main focus is the rich tradition of prayer in the Catholic church. Each book features real-time, in-the-moment prayer experiences created and built around your church's art.
- Focus on Belonging. The engaging approach that underpins Light for the Journey connects readers with your church and creates a real sense of belonging and community in your parish.
- Dynamic Faith-Building Gifts. Light for the Journey easily becomes a cherished part of a person's prayer life. The combination of the art with prayers and meditations in Light for the Journey draws the reader into a deeper, vibrant relationship with Christ.

“The images reveal your church in breathtaking, inspiring, and artful ways. The written content engages to support readers in prayer and community.

“Print and digital options are expertly customized based on your particular church: its sanctuary, art, even your priest(s) and deacons.

Light for the Journey

Customized Books for Church Fundraising

www.YourChurchBooks.com

catechesis | community building | fundraising |